The Benefits of Networking

“Being a member of PPNO is an excellent way of finding out what other organizations are doing about similar issues.”
(Donna, Hamilton Health Sciences)

Networking, sharing of resources, mentoring 'regional' team building and time to challenge thoughts and support strategies further.
(Cheryl, Huron-Perth)

“PPNO has taken the lead in bringing professional practice experts together to share their vision and experiences of various environments and practices”.

“Being part of PPNO, through the listserv, has provided me with ready access to the expertise and experiences of the group and helped to confirm the direction we have taken on certain issues...or the need to revisit others”.
(Geri, St. Joseph's, Thunder Bay)

“The network was a wonderful support and provided me with direction as I assumed a new role as practice leader for nursing. The networking with other colleagues is wonderful and invaluable.”
