

Designed to equip clinical psychology students and professionals in Ontario with the skills, knowledge, tools, and networks necessary to successfully launch and thrive in private practice.

Join the all new

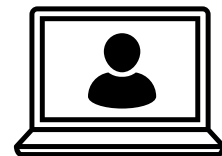

Private and Independent Practice Program and gain the skills you need to successfully launch your private practice

STEP 01

Attend an info session

Learn more about the program by attending a virtual info session to see if the program meets your needs and goals

STEP 02

Talk to a program coordinator

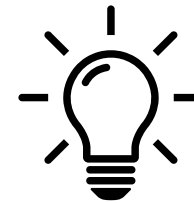

Have questions about the program? Book a meeting through our website and talk to a coordinator today

STEP 03

Register now

Ready to get started? Register now on the website for the January 2025 cohort!

Get started today and build the confidence to manage and grow your own private practice